Declaration

IMPORTANT: Your debt repayment commitments must be maintained while this application is being assessed. From 1 July 2022, mandatory credit information will include the supply of financial hardship information (FHI). This information will be held on your credit file for a 12 month period and does not impact your credit score. The information recorded will reflect if you have met what was agreed under the financial hardship arrangement. For example, if we agree for you to temporarily pay half your regular monthly payment, your credit report will record if you paid the reduced payments or not. Should we agree to vary your contract, this will also be recorded.

- I/We declare that the information in this application is true and correct, and I/we have not withheld any information which may affect Newcastle Permanent's decision.
- I/We give Newcastle Permanent authority to seek from, use, or give to, any financial consultant, lawyer, or _____ (full name of person assisting you), any consumer credit information (including but not limited to past or present details of my/our loans or credit with Newcastle Permanent) or to discuss this application with any of the aforementioned.
- I/We give Newcastle Permanent authority to change my/our credit contract/s to assist me/us in this time of 'Financial Hardship'.
- I/We understand that this may increase my/our required repayments at the end of the assistance period, if assistance is provided.

Hardship Process

Once the completed Hardship Application has been received, Newcastle Permanent has 21 days to provide you with a written response outlining the decision.

If Newcastle Permanent requires any additional information in order to complete the assessment, Newcastle Permanent will write to you with the requirements. You have 21 days from the date we make the request to provide the information. If the information has not been received within the 21 day timeframe, Newcastle Permanent will treat your application as withdrawn. If you subsequently wish to re-apply for hardship assistance you will need to complete a new Hardship Application and start the process from the beginning.

Please return the application to:

- Your local Newcastle Permanent branch; or
- Email: CustomerAssist@npbs.com.au; or
- Post: Attention: Customer Assist Team, PO Box 5001, HRMC NSW 2302.
